INTERIOR DESIGN: FALL DECORATING

With autumn just around the corner, now is the perfect time to embrace the season's cozy charm. As the weather changes, many homeowners look for simple ways to bring the colours and comfort of fall into both their interior and exterior spaces.

1. Swap Out a Few Textiles

The easiest change with the biggest impact:

- Add rust, camel, mustard, olive, or burgundy throw pillows.
- Switch to chunky knit or plaid blankets.
- Use warmer-toned table runners or placemats.

Even if your home has a lot of blue, warm neutrals like tan, cream, and cognac leather pair beautifully with it. Looking for accents that are complimentary to your current colour scheme is the best approach to create harmony and interest.

2. Create Cozy Lighting

Fall is all about warmth.

- Use warm white bulbs (2700K).
- Add flameless candles.
- Place lanterns on mantels or entry tables.
- Turn on table lamps instead of overhead lights in the evening.

3. Add Dried Floral Arrangements

Fill a few vases with:

- Wheat stalks.
- Bunny tails.
- Preserved eucalyptus.
- Pampas grass.

One large arrangement in the entryway or dining room can instantly change the season's feel.

🧡 4. Use Fall Color in Small Amounts

You don't have to redecorate. If your home already has blues, grays, or whites, simply add accents in:

- Burnt orange.
- Terracotta.
- Rust.
- Gold.
- Wheat beige.

Blue and burnt orange are complementary colors, so they look especially good together.

🎃 5. Decorate the Front Entrance

Simple ideas:

- A pumpkin or two by the door. I really love the white pumpkins for a bit of change.
- A fall wreath.
- Cornstalks or mums.
- A seasonal welcome mat.

You don't need a whole pumpkin patch display. Even three pumpkins in varying sizes look intentional and elegant.
